Dear Applicant,

Thank you for your interest in the Woodbridge Township Ambulance and Rescue Squad, Inc. This letter provides a brief explanation of basic requirements of the application process, member's duty and probationary requirements, as well as the Rescue Squad Structure.

The Woodbridge Township Ambulance and Rescue Squad, Inc. have been serving the community since 1937. The Rescue Squad is made up of the Woodbridge Emergency Squad, Iselin First Aid Squad and Hopelawn First Aid Squad. The Rescue Squad is proud of its volunteering staffing, modern equipment and progressive emergency service operations. We have attained this status using primarily volunteer personnel supplemented with paid EMT positions. We hope you will make the commitment needed to come part of this team and as such, part of the tradition of excellence.

Code of Conduct

This code is not intended to cover every possible situation that may arise. It is, however, intended to serve as guide to give a basic understanding of expected conduct and performance. Unfit conduct, as described below, will not be tolerated and disciplinary action will be taken, regardless of position. Disciplinary action may include suspension, expulsion, and/or legal action.

The Woodbridge Township Ambulance & Rescue Squad, Inc. (Herein referred to as the Rescue Squad) is committed to providing quality care and services that meet the needs of our patients and the communities we serve. No conduct that is immoral, unsafe, unethical or illegal will be tolerated by the Rescue Squad. Such conduct is listed, but not limited to, the ones below:

1. Breach of Confidentiality: Any information about a patient's condition, care or treatment must not be discussed with anyone except those who are directly responsible for the individual's care and treatment. Carelessness or thoughtlessness, including conversations in public areas in and outside the Rescue Squad, leading to the release of confidential information is not only unethical, but could create legal ramifications for both the offender and the Rescue Squad. Inquiries from the police, press, insurance companies, and attorneys must be referred to the Chief.
2. Insubordination: Refusing, by work or action, to cooperate with a line officer, executive officer, or crew chief directive.
3. Harassment: The Rescue Squad strives to maintain a work environment free from conduct that harasses, disrupts or interferes with an individual's work performance or conduct, which creates an intimidating, offensive or hostile environment. Each member will demonstrate appropriate respect and consideration for one another and our communities. No sexual and/or verbal harassment will be tolerated.
4. Alcohol: Possession or drinking of alcoholic beverages on the Rescue Squad's premises or ambulance at any time will not be tolerated, separate from approved functions held in the area known as Monarch Hall. Also, reporting to a call in an intoxicated condition or with alcohol on the breath.
5. Property Damage: Deliberate or negligent destruction and/or theft of the Rescue Squad's property or the property of another member, visitor or patient are cause for disciplinary and/or legal action.
6. Profanity: The use of profanity will not be tolerated. All members will conduct themselves in a professional manner.

7. Violence: Fighting and/or any violent act or threat of violence, against any person is cause for disciplinary and/or legal action.
8. Falsifying Records: Falsifying any records or call cards is both immoral and illegal. Any changes or additions will be attached by an addendum with time, date and signature of person making changes. Time and date included must be the time in which the changes are made.
9. Slander: Members will not make any false or misleading statements about the Rescue Squad or its members or any other organization.
10. Visitors: All visitors and guest will adhere to the rules listed above. Members are responsible for their guest's conduct while on squad property or at a squad function.

I have received, read and understand the foregoing document.
